Central, Dear Central, Your sons and daughters
Wear the White and Blue.
White-for your honor pure.
Blue-making hearts endure.
Central, we will cherish you, down through the years.
We will love you, through smiles, and tears.
Dear Central, our own.

Reflections-Since High School

It is said that there are three ages of women: youth, middle age and "you haven't changed." But change is the name of the game. Consider, Class of 1942, we were before the population explosion and the Pill, which went hand in hand, so to speak.

We were before pantyhose and drip-dry clothes; before dish washers and clothes dryers; before freezers and electric blankets. We were here before Hawaii and Alaska became states. Before men wore long hair and women wore pant suits. Before penicillin, polio shots, and way before frisbees. Before frozen food, nylon, dacron, xerox machines and ball point pens. For us, time-sharing meant togetherness--no time shared on a computer, and chip was a piece of wood and the hardware was uptown, and software wasn't even a word.

We were before Leonard Bernstein, yogurt, Ann Landers, plastics and hairdryers. We got married first and then lived together--real square--huh! In our time, closets were for clothes--not for coming out of. The girls wore Peter Pan collars and a book entitled "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" sure had a different meaning.

Bunnies were small rabbits and rabbits weren't Volkswagens, which by the way we were here before. Pizzas were unheard of, and so were Cherrios, frozen orange juice, instant coffee and McDonalds. We were before FM radio, TV, stereo, tape recorders, electronic music, disco dancing and boom-boxes--but come to think of it--that's not bad.

We thought fast food was what you ate during the noon hour. In our day Coke was something to drink--if you had a nickel; grass was mowed and pot was something to cook in. We were before day care centers, house-husbands, baby-sitters, computer dating, dual careers and nursing homes--but now they are here and waiting for us.

In our time there were 5 and 10 stores where you could buy candy, pencils, school paper or carpet tacks for 5 or 10 cents--honest. Why for a nickel you could make a phone call or buy enough stamps to mail one letter and two postcards. You could buy a new Chevy Tudor for $650, if you had it. Oh yes, gas was 19¢ a gallon! And ice cream was 5¢ for a big dip.

If anyone had asked us to explain CIA, MS, NATO, UFO, NFL, JFK, ERA, or AIDS--we would have said "aw shucks, that's alphabet soup". We were not before the difference between the sexes was discovered, but we were before the sex-change. Ha!--we just made do with what we had!

This essay title?--"A Different World"--maybe, but as we look back, maybe it should be--"THE BEST OF TIMES".

But as for Yesterday - weep not - for it is gone
Tomorrow --- it may never be
So live, and just say a little "Thank God" for Today.

New Friends and Old Friends

Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.
New-made friendships, like new wine
Age will mellow and refine.
Friendships that have stood the test--
Time and change--are surely best;
Brow may wrinkle, hair grown gray
Friendship never knows decay.
Once more we our youth renew,
But, old friends, also, may die;
New friends must their place supply.
Cherish friendship, in your breast--
New is good, but old is best.
Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.
